

I do not want to change Indiana's telephone privacy law. I love that I can sit down to dinner with my children and not be interrupted by unwanted phone calls. Now, when my phone rings, I know it is someone I want to speak to. Please do not change it.